The Roxelyn and Richard Pepper Department of Communication Science and Disorders at Northwestern University is searching for a faculty member in Audiology to hold a position of Lecturer (non-tenure line). Applicants will be responsible for teaching either in the classroom or in the clinic during provision of services. As a member of the faculty, the successful applicant will also be involved in general academic and clinical program development in the Roxelyn and Richard Pepper Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders and its (Northwestern University) Center for Audiology, Speech, Language, and Learning (NUCASLL) in the School of Communication. The NUCASLL is a new state of the art facility for clinical training and service delivery.

The successful candidate will have strong interests in classroom teaching, mentoring students in research projects and developing student’s clinical and professional skills. A successful candidate will also have strong interests in areas of vestibular and tinnitus assessment and treatment and aural rehabilitation.

Employment term: An 11-month renewable appointment

Duties:
- Provide high quality classroom instruction in vestibular assessment and treatment and other areas of clinical foundations.
- Participate in clinical research by collecting data and providing guidance on AuD capstone projects.
- Provide high quality evidence-based clinical audiologic services to individuals for the purpose of preventing, identifying and treating hearing and balance disorders.
- Develop the clinical and professional skills of Doctor of Audiology students via direct clinic and educational team-based instruction.

Qualifications:
- Earned AuD or PhD
- Eligibility for Illinois Audiology license
- ASHA Certificate of Clinical Competence
- Experience providing vestibular assessment and treatment
- Taken courses or obtained certification in precepting students
- 5 years clinical experience

Salary: Commensurate with experience

Application procedure: Send cover letter describing your clinical interests and experiences and list any previous teaching or research experience (if applicable), a current vita (including email address), and three letters of recommendation to the Search Committee Chair, Dr. Diane Novak. Mail to CSD Audiology Lecturer Position Search, Northwestern University Center for Audiology, Speech, Language and Learning, Northwestern University, 2315 Campus Drive, Evanston IL 60208. Forward questions to Diane Novak at:
d-novak@northwestern.edu. For more information about the Department, please visit: http://www.communication.northwestern.edu/csd/.

The University Northwestern University is one of the nation’s largest private research Universities. The main campus is located in Evanston and the medical campus is located 12 miles south in Chicago. Both campuses are located on the shore of Lake Michigan. There is continuing expansion of University facilities and programs, particularly in the sciences and medicine. Diverse cultural, social, and recreational activities abound on and near each campus. Closing Date: Ongoing until position is filled. Review of applications will begin immediately.

Northwestern University is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action Employer of all protected classes including veterans and individuals with disabilities. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Hiring is contingent upon eligibility to work in the United States.