

Center for Global Culture and Communication

An Interdisciplinary Initiative of Northwestern University School of Communication

DISTANT THUNDER: POLITICS AND POETICS OF A RECEDING OCTOBER REVOLUTION

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 2017
9.30AM-5.30PM
(RECEPTION TO FOLLOW)
HARRIS HALL, ROOM 108
NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

WITH VISITING PARTICIPANTS

- \ YEVGENIY FIKS (Artist)
- \ JONATHAN FLATLEY (English, Wayne State University)
- \ DAYO GORE (Ethnic Studies, University of California at San Diego)
- \ NINA GOURIANOVA (Slavic Studies, Northwestern University)
- \ STEVEN LEE (English, University of California, Berkeley)
- \ BILL V. MULLEN (English and American Studies, Purdue University)
- \ MARIA RATANOVA (Mellon Postdoctoral Scholar, Harriman Institute, Columbia University)
- \ JULIA VAINGURT (Slavic, University of Illinois at Chicago)
- \ ELENA YUSHKOVA (Art History, Vologda Branch of Moscow Academy for Humanities)

CONVENER

- \ KATE BALDWIN
(Rhetoric and Public Culture & American Studies, Northwestern University)

CO-SPONSORS

- \ AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES \ ALICE KAPLAN INSTITUTE FOR THE HUMANITIES \
- \ AMERICAN STUDIES \ ART HISTORY \ COMMUNICATION STUDIES \
- \ COMPARATIVE LITERARY STUDIES \ ENGLISH \ HISTORY \
- \ RHETORIC AND PUBLIC CULTURE \

For more information, please contact Gabby Garcia at gabbygarcia@u.northwestern.edu.