Global Media and Communication Seminar during Spring Break
Over spring break last week, the SoC headed to London for the Global Media and Communication Seminar. The seminar included lectures from faculty members of our host school London School of Economics, presentations and site visits to leading companies in the media and communications fields, and acclaimed theatre productions! Hear about all the events of this week from our student participants on the GMCS blog.

Summer Internship Awards
Looking for summer internships and need additional financial support to make it happen? Check out the programs below that can assist you in funding your summer internship!

School of Communication Internship Awards:
Two award programs are available for School of Communication students only! The Molotsky Internship Award provides funding for students interning outside of the Chicagoland area. The Hammerschlag Internship Award provides funding for students interning anywhere over the summer. Application deadline for both awards is Monday, May 12th, 2014. Visit our website for the applications and more information. Email epics@northwestern.edu with any questions.

Summer Internship Grant Program (SIGP):
SIGP is sponsored by University Career Services and is open to all Northwestern undergrads. SIGP provides a $2500 stipend to help support Northwestern undergraduate students participating in unpaid summer internships. Application deadline is Tuesday, April 15th at 12 pm. Click here for more information.
