School of Communication Summer Internship Awards

Need helping funding your internship over the summer? Two award programs are available for School of Communication students only! The Molotsky Internship Award provides funding for students interning outside of the Chicagoland area. The Hammerschlag Internship Award provides funding for students interning anywhere over the summer. Application deadline for both awards is Monday, May 12th, 2014. Visit our website for the applications and more information. Email epics@northwestern.edu with any questions.

Student Spotlights

Bridget McNamara started her internship with Carol Fox and Associates full of questions, “what is the difference between PR and Marketing? How do they both work? What will I be doing?” Already she’s getting answers. Read about what it’s like to represent talents like The Blue Man Group, Alvin Ailey and more in her new Student Spotlight Blog: Getting Started.

“I did not realize the magnitude of the teams,” says Tyler Miller, a junior Communication Studies major here at Northwestern. With a passion for professional soccer Miller jumped at the opportunity to work with the Chicago Fire, but he had no idea about all the time and effort that goes on behind the scenes of an average game. Check out Tyler’s new Student Spotlight Blog to find out for yourself what a day in the life of the Chicago Fire looks like both the on and off the field.

“Moving is never easy, even if you’re going to the happiest place on earth,” says Geneve. As someone who describes herself as a home body Geneve never thought she’d be traveling so far, or spending her last quarters at Northwestern away from Evanston, but she has some great tips for anyone who is working or living in a brand new place. You can check her advice and get a behind the scenes look at the life of a Walt Disney World intern by reading her new Student Spotlight Blog, Moving to Disney World.
